STATE HEALTH LECTURER TO SPEAK TO CHILDREN

Illustrated Talk to be Given at Coyle Theatre April 3

MAKING EXTENDED TOUR

Charleroi One of Many Places at Which He Will Stop--Contract to be Let

The Charleroi schools are to profit through the activity of the State Department of Health which is instituting now a campaign of education in the protection of the general health and methods of guarding against that much feared disease, tuberculosis. At a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening, a communication from the department that had been received by Prof. T. L. Pollock superintendent of schools, was read, it stating that a representative was about to make a tour of the important towns and cities of the state. Charleroi would gladly be included in the itinerary the department said in its letter and if agreeable a stop would be made here on April 3. Action was taken by the thes chool board for the representative to visit here.

Manager R. S. Coyle has donated the use of the Coyle Theatre for illustrated lectures that will be delivered. There will be two lectures on the subject "Tuberculosis and General Health Measures," one in the morning and one in the afternoon. This arrangement has been made that all school children over 10 years may attend. They will be taken to the theatre by their teachers. The general public will be invited also to the lectures. An evening lecture would have been given had an auditorium been available.

Action was taken by the board that advertising matter be issued at once for the plumbing and sewering of the new school building. When this contract is awarded all contracts will have been placed. Architect A. P. Cooper was present and went over the plans for the plumbing and sewering with members of the board.

The matter of drilling one well or more at the new school was discussed. It is the intention to install a pumping system, providing sufficient water can be secured without the necessity of drilling innumerable wells. If there is not enough water the new school will of course have to be partly supplied with city water.

Commencement exercises of high school will be held under some difficulty this year. It was decided Wednesday night that the commencement proper be held in a local church to be secured later. Arrangements were made to secure the use of Turner Hall is possible for the class day exercises.

Location for a Warehouse

R. C. Mountser Buys Ten Lots on McKean Avenue And Will Improve Site

Transfer of ten lots facing 220 feet on McKean avenue has been made by A. R. Mountser to his son R. C. Mountser, the well known grain and feed dealer. The deal for the property was closed recently. The lots entered from Third street on the east side of the street to and including theb uilding where A. R. Mountser now lives. It is the intention of Mr. Mountser to erect in the near future a modern grain elevator and warehouse on the newly acquired site.

DR. HELLER AND MISS ADA MARIE BARNHART WEDDED

Pleasantly surprising their friends, Miss Ada Marie Barnhart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Barnhart of Fourth street and Dr. Percy K. Heller, a well known young physician of Charleroi were married in Pittsburg on Wednesday. Quietly they left Wednesday morning for Pittsburg, their intentions unknown but to the members of the bride's family. The wedding ceremony was performed by a minister there.

The bride is a most popular young woman. Her father is the manager and proprietor of the Palace Theatre on McKean avenue. The family is one of the oldest and best known in the town.

Dr. Heller located in Charleroi a few years ago and has built up a good practice. He has become in the short period he has been here one of the leading young physicians of the town. Like his bride he comes from a prominent family. His father is a leading banker of Rochester, Pa.

Dr. and Mrs. Heller for the present will not take any wedding trip. Their announcements are being issued and they will be "at home" after May 1, at 621 Fallowfield a venue.

Injured in Fall.

Mrs. J. Young, aged 63 years was hurt at Belle Vernon when a fence against which she was leaning Wednesday afternoon broke and she was precipitated to the street below about six feet. Her back and side were injured and she was hurt internally but it is thought she will recover.

SUGGEST MONESSEN BILL BE PRESENTED

If Coatesville's Charter is to be Revoked, so the Easteners Assert Should be That of Westmoreland Borough

In retaliation for the bad name Coatesville has been given recently by the talk of revoking its charter as a means of punishment for the lynching of a negro in that town, it has been suggested that the people of that borough have a bill introduced in the legislature for the revocation of Monessen's charter because of the murder of Policeman Michael Entinger there over a week ago at a house used for immoral purposes.

Gov. Tener started the movement towards the revocation of Coatesville's charter, when he gave his message to the legislature at the opening of the present session. Coatesville it is asserted permitted the lynching of Zack Walker, a negro on the outskirts of the town and failed to properly attend to the punishment of the lynchers.

Since the talk of revoking the Coatesville borough charter has been going on the citizens of that community have been fighting, successfully so far, to keep any action from being taken. They are on the lookout to catch up other towns in the state.

Monesesn's murder it is claimed occurred on theoutskirts of theborough. While that may be true, argue the easteners, so did the Coatesville lynching and they are held responsible for it. The matter is one that is being agitated considerably, though nothing definite has been done yet.

COMMITTEE TO VISIT GOVERNOR

Tener Promises to Assist in Dual Office Probe

HOUSE STAND BY HIM

Harrisburg, March 20—Governor Tener was sustained by the house yesterday in his attitude on the right of the special committee to investigate the executive department relative to dual office holding. Before the presentation of the report of the judiciary committee, to which the matter of the governor's subordinates refusing to testify to before the special investigating committee had been referred was presented, Governor Tener submitted a message in which he stated that he was willing to give all the information the committee desired. This aroused a bitter squabble as to whether or not the resolution for the committee to wait upon the governor before it took further action should be laid upon the table. The house finally voted in favor of this but the committee reported that it held the officials who refused to testify in contempt.

Some sensational testimony was brought out at the initial meeting of the House committee to investigate the pay roll of the senate and the house, when it was shown that two custodians of the wash room who are paid $6 a day each for their services are claiming the job out for $1 a day each to a negro who has a shoe blacking establishment in the basement, who in turn farms it out to two boys at 50 cents each It was shown that this has been the custom for years but in all probability the practice will be stopped.

The house will now get down to business, it is expected as very little of the important business has yet been transacted and the people are beginning to murmur over the delay.

The seate passed finally the Sheatz consututional amendment to increase the debt limit of counties, cities, boroughs, townships and school districts from seven to ten per cent of the assessed property valuation and permitting municipal bonds to be issued for 50 year terms instead of 30.

Bills passed by the senate were: Prohibiting the sale or gift of cigarets to minors; house bill prohibiting the killing of elk; providing for the education of blind children in the public schools; house bill authorizing liquor dealers to keep their places open pending the outcome of applications for license transfers.

The appropriations committee approved the bill appropriating $1,000,000 to aid municipalities ordered by the health commissioner of the state to construct sewage disposal plants.

SOLEMN PERIOD BEGINS

Today First of Four Noted Religicus Days of the Year

SERVICES ARE HELD

Today begins one of the most solemn religious periods in the whole year. This is because it represents the day before the crucifixion of Christ. Holy, or Maunday Thursday, is followed by Good Friday, which is made the occasion of solemn ceremonies throughout the Catholic churches of the land and many of the Protestant denominations. Holy Saturday will be observed and then will come the crowning event of all, Easter Sunday, which signifies the day of the resurrection.

Because of the religious observance of the two days, the public schools are closed today and will remain closed until Monday.

Services are being held today in St. Jerome's Catholic church and in St. Mary's Episcopal church.

FACULTY DRUBBED BY HIGH SCHOOL

The Charleroi high school faculty team did not appear strong enough Wednesday night to best the regular high school team and was beaten by the score of 51 to 32. However the game which was the last one of the basketball season was fast at all times. The faculty team led at the end of the first half by the score of 22 to 20, but that lead didn't last long. The lineup:

High School—51		Faculty—32
Wagner	F	Jimeson
Stahlman	F	Lorimer
Gaut	C	Wagner
Hickey	G	Grim
E. Lowstutter	G	Haines

Field goals—Wagner 6, Stahlman 9, Gaut 8, Hickey, Lowstutter, Jimeson 3, Lorimer 2, Wagner 7, Grim 2, Haines.

Although two conferences have been held between the officials of the Belle Vernon Coal and Coke company where the miners were recently organized into a local by O ganizer William Feeney and the representatives of the United Mine Workers, relative to signing the scale and recognizing the union, no conclusion has been reached. A final conference will be held today betweetn Mr. Feeney and Board Member John O'Leary representing the miners, and the mine officials. If a conclusion is no reached today a strike is imminent

FATAL ILLNESS STARTS WITH AN ATTACK OF GRIP

Charles D. Strausser, aged 50 years, and for 20 years a resident of Charleroi died at 8:25 o'clock Wednesday night at his home at 801 Shady avenue after a three weeks' illness. Mr. Strausser took sick with grip. Complications grew as the result. Mr. Strausser was employed as foreman of the box shop at the Imperial Bottle factory.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lillie Strausser, his mother Mrs. Sarah Strausser and the following sons and daughters; Bert, Carl, Harry, Clyde, Raymond, James and Misses Mabel, Lillie, Cora and Ethel; also Mrs. Martha Leisure of Belle Vernon.

Mr. Strausser was a member of Charleroi Circle No. 303, Protected Home Circle of the Odd Fellows lodge and of the Charleroi Loyal Order of the Moose. The Protected Home Circle will hold funeral services at the home on Friday night after the regular lodge meeting.

Public funeral services will be held at the late home at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. T. Hackett, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, where Mr. Strausser was a member. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

Monongahela Window Glass Workers Lay Down Tools

COMPANY MAKES OFFER

Agree to Regulate Pay Differently With an Increase in Three Departments

Two plants of the American Window Glass company, one at Belle Vernon employing between 400 and 500 men and one at Monongahela employing a similar number are closed by reason of a strike. Today at noon the company issued a notice offering workers in the blowers, cappers and ladlers departments increased pay, that if accepted will end the strike.

The Belle Vernon factory was closed down Tuesday when the lead taken by the blowers and cappers to strike was followed generally. The blowers and cappers struck for increased pay claiming they were not getting what they had been promiserd. Other departments struck more out of sympathy than anything else. The Industrial Workers of the World quickly and quietly effected an organization in Belle Vernon and sent representatives to Monongahela to get the factory men there to come out.

They succeeded in their efforts and today the Monongahela factory fires are out. However, it is not believed the strike will be long lived. The notice issued by the American Window Glass company to their four factories, Monongahela, Belle Vernon, Jennette and New Kensington is regarded as fair. It is as follows:

"Notice is hereby given by the American Window Glass company that beginning with Saturday March 15, 1913, box money will be paid to the blowers, cappers and ladlers for all over 20 boxes per machine per shift, instead of the present rate."

The blowers, cappers and ladlers have been receiving pay for all over 30 boxes.

SMALL GAIN IN THE POPULATION

There were 25 births and 16 deaths in the Charleroi district during February. Dr. Edwin McKay, registrar, gave the report to the Mail this morning. Of this number there were 22 births in Charleroi, and three in Fallowfield, there being none in Twilight. In Charleroi there were 15 deaths and in Fallowfield one death.

HOME TRADE.

It frequently happens that a candidate for county office losses out because he did not carry his home town or district. He loses it because he made no effort to see the voters—his friends and neighbors—individually and acquaint them of his canvass, talk the matter over with them and make them feel that they were important enough to be considered. He takes for granted that his home people all know that he is a candidate and are in duty bound to support him, and that it is a waste of time to seek out each one individually and solicit his support. Because of this lack of interest in his home district some of his neighbors vote against the home candidate out of resentment, while others are indifferent, or have promised the other fellow who is a candidate who sought out the individual voter, talked nice to him, gave him a cigar and wrote to him later on just before the election.

What happens to the political candidate who neglects his home town is what happens to the merchant or tradesman who pursues the same tactics. Many merchants are constantly on the outlook for outside trade who neglect to go after the trade in their home town. The result is that as much trade goes out at one end of the town as comes in at the other. The home merchant who does not advertise constantly and tell his neighbors what he carries and give details of value, quality and style, is supplanted by the outside merchant who does. The business policy that assumes that all the home people are in duty bound to patronize the home merchant without any obligation on the part of the latter except to hand out the merchandise is a suicidal one. It arouses resentment on the part of the public, fosters indifferences and does not promote loyalty to home institutions.

When the home merchants delegate to the outside advertisers the task of educating the public as to trade values, styles and qualities, the outsiders are going to profit by the knowledge they have imparted and the confidence they have inspired.

GOOD IDEA.

The Washington Observer comes forward with the proposition that before a person can be elected to the office of congress or the legislature, he must have certain qualifications to equip him for the office. He should be possessed of a board and liberal education, have a well defined knowledge of political economy, civil service, public and moral efficiency, be able to pass a rigid examination in the instricacies of state, county and municipal government and be able to interpret in a common sense way the rights and privileges guaranteed by the national and state constitutions. It is proposed to make these qualifications a condition for eligibility to a legislative office, state or national.

It is pointed out that the lawyer, the doctor, the school teacher, the druggist and those who follow many other occupations are required to have certain and special qualifications before they can deal with the public. As the legislators are the ones who impose conditions and regulations on othe individuals as well as the public, it is up to the public to require legislators to be well qualified for the task. The idea is a good one and marks for efficiency.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A reader, who is of the opinion that "life is a funny proposition after all," and that in the deal the animal called man—the male of the species—gets the hot end of the poker, submits the following:

"Man comes into this world without his consent, and he leaves it against his will, and while he stays on this earth his life is one continuous round of conflict and misunderstanding.

"In his infancy he is an angel. In his boyhood he is a devil, and in his manhood he is everything from a lizard up. If he is a poor man, he is a poor manager and has no sense. If he is a rich man he is di-honest, but considered smart. If he is a Republican or a Democrat he is a grafter, and if he is a Socialist he is an undesirable citizen. If he goes to church he is a hypocrit, if he don't he is a sinner. If he raises a family he is a chump and if he raises a check he is a thief, and then the law raises h—— with him. If he gives to the foreign mission he only gives it for a show, and if he doesn't he is stingy and a tight wad and when first he comes into this world everybody wants to kiss him and before he leaves it everybody wants to kick him. If he dies in his youth there was a great future before him and if he lives to a ripe old age he is only living to save funeral expenses.

"So it is a funny proposition after all. All life is, is one hum drum thing after another."

A traveling man whose occupations bring him frequently in a house to house canvass in the rural districts relates how once he was traveling in West Virginia and being belated, stopped at a small log house in the mountains and asked the woman if he could get supper.

"Well, now," she said, "I'm pretty well out of provisions. I didn't bake today, and have no bread; I'm out of tea and coffee, as I haven't been to the store this week."

"Haven't you something you can give me to eat?" the man inquired.

"Well, I can give you some good canned pears, some fried eggs and some water," the woman replied.

"All right," give me that," said the traveler, and he added that the pears were all right and verified the woman's statement that they were good.

Retail Druggists Of Charleroi Receive a "Tar Heel" Remedy

A Vapor Treatment in the Form of a Salve--Relieves Colds Over Night, Croup in Fifteen Minutes--Druggists Giving Away 25 Cent Packages Free

The local druggists have received from North Carolina, the "Tar Heel" State ,a remedy for all cold troubles that is entirely different from the usual run of cough syrups and cold tablets.

It is the form of a salve that is vaporized by the heat of the body when applied to the throat and chest. These antiseptic vapors are inhaled with each breath and combined with the absorption of the preparation through the skin, give almost immediate relief in even the worst cases of croup and relieve head and chest colds over night.

But the fact of most interest to mothers about this new treatment is that it is external and can thus be used with perfect safety on the youngest member of the family.

In cases of incipient pneumonia or severe colds first apply hot wet towels to open the pores of the skin, then rub the salve in well and cover with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the covers loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. The next morning you hardly realize you had a cold as the head is clear, phlegm loosened and soreness gone from the lungs.

In advanced cases of pneumonia the use of this preparation in connection with the regular physician's treatment will greatly aid the patient's chances of recovery. Combined with the absorption of the treatment through the skin, the medicated vapors inhaled loosen the wreckage in the lungs and render the breathing less difficult. This takes part of the work from the overtaxed heart and thus lowers the fever.

These seem strong claims but the wholesale houses in Pittsburg of Shipley Massingham Co. and Gilmore Drug Co., who have investigated the results of this treatment in the south are so convinced of its merit that they have authorized the retail druggists to sell it on 30 days' trial and to refund the price to any user who is not delighted with the results.

In addition the druggists are arranging to give away a limited number of 25-cent packages free to their regular customers. Present the coupon below and if your dealer has not yet received his shipment he will reserve you a package.

Over 1,000 Hit Trail.

At the beginning of the week 1,016 persons have "hit the sawdust trail" at the big tabernacle meetings at Canonsburg under direction of Dr. Lyon and his company. On Sunday there were 191 new trailers, bringing the aggregate number up to the number mentioned. Over 3,000 men were in attendance at the men's meeting on Sunday when the evangelist preached on temperance.

Morganza Inmates Hit Trail.

When the Rev. G. G. Kerr of Canonsburg conducted the usual religious service in the Pennsylvania Training School last Sunday, about 50 of the boys and girls went forward and signified their intention of accepting the Christian life. This number was in addition to between 200 and 300 who took a similar stand last week, when Dr. Lyon and his party visited the Training school. Since the Lyon meetings opened more than 300 inmates at Morganza have professed Christianity.

Telephone Co. Elects Officers.

The Home Mutual Telephone company met at Deemston recently and elected the following officers for a term of one year: President, J. W. Kenny; vice president, R. H. Williams; secretary, C. A. Bennet treasurer, First National bank of Fredericktown. The next meeting of the general company will be at Deemston on Tuesday, March 25.

Old Account Book Interesting.

Anderson Hootman of Strabane has in his possession a book which belonged to John Whitmore which is more than 100 years of age. Items in this book are dated as far back as January 23,1781. The book has been in the Hootman family for many years, it having been found among a lot of old relics in the house owned by the grandfather of Anderson Hootman. Some of the early accounts are computed in pence and shillings, one of the most frequent of which is whisky, by the pint and gill.

To Organize New Grange.

A meeting of the farmers of the Vanceville region in Somerset township will be held this evening for the purpose of organizing a new grange.

Route May Be Discontinued.

The postoffice department has ordered the star mail route from Washington to Scenery Hill to be discontinued on April 1, and a number of patrons are protesting. The change was ordered on the recommendation of an inspector who learned that mail could reach Scenery Hill by train by the way of Monongahela and Marianna, but this will make mail from the county seat a day late.

Italians Apply for Charter.

A petition has been presented to the court for the incorporation of "The Italian Mutual Benefit Society" of Washington county. Its place of business is in Canonsburg. The objects of the society are to aid and give assistance to sick and disabled members, and for the elevation of the moral, intellectual and social welfare of the members.

EXPERIENCE OF MOTHERHOOD

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

STATE HEALTH LECTURER TO SPEAK TO CHILDREN

Illustrated Talk to be Given at Coyle Theatre April 3

MAKING EXTENDED TOUR

Charleroi One of Many Places at Which He Will Stop--Contract to be Let

The Charleroi schools are to profit through the activity of the State Department of Health which is instituting now a campaign of education in the protection of the general health and methods of guarding against that much feared disease, tuberculosis. At a meeting of the school board held Wednesday evening, a communication from the department that had been received by Prof. T. L. Pollock superintendent of schools, was read, it stating that a representative was about to make a tour of the important towns and cities of the state. Charleroi would gladly be included in the itinerary the department said in its letter and if agreeable a stop would be made here on April 3. Action was taken by thes chool board for the representative to visit here.

Manager R. S. Coyle has donated the use of the Coyle Theatre for illustrated lectures that will be delivered. There will be two lectures on the subject "Tuberculosis and General Health Measures," one in the morning and one in the afternoon. This arrangement has been made that all school children over 10 years may attend. They will be taken to the theatre by their teachers. The general public will be invited also to the lectures. An evening lecture would have been given had an auditorium been available.

Action was taken by the board that advertising matter be issued at once for the plumbing and sewering of the new school building. When this contract is awarded all contracts will have been placed. Architect A. P. Cooper was present and went over the plans for the plumbing and sewering with members of the board.

The matter of drilling one well or more at the new school was discussed. It is the intention to install a pumping system, providing sufficient water can be secured without the necessity of drilling innumerable wells. If there is not enough water the new school will of course have to be partly supplied with city water.

Commencement exercises of high school will be held under some difficulty this year. It was decided Wednesday night that the commencement proper be held in a local church to be secured later. Arrangements were made to secure the use of Turner Hall is possible for the class day exercises.

Location for a Warehouse

R. C. Mountser Buys Ten Lots on McKean Avenue

And Will Improve Site

Transfer of ten lots facing 220 feet on McKean avenue has been made by A. R. Mountser to his son R. C. Mountser, the well known grain and feed dealer. The deal for the property was closed recently. The lots entered from Third street on the east side of the street to and including theb uilding where A. R. Mountser now lives. It is the intention of Mr. Mountser to erect in the near future a modern grain elevator and warehouse on the newly acquired site.

DR. HELLER AND MISS ADA MARIE BARNHART WEDDED

Pleasantly surprising their friends, Miss Ada Marie Barnhart, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Barnhart of Fourth street and Dr. Percy K. Heller, a well known young physician of Charleroi were married in Pittsburg on Wednesday. Quietly they left Wednesday morning for Pittsburg, their intentions unknown but to the members of the bride's family. The wedding ceremony was performed by a minister there.

The bride is a most popular young woman. Her father is the manager and proprietor of the Palace Theatre on McKean avenue. The family is one of the oldest and best known in the town.

Dr. Heller located in Charleroi a few years ago and has built up a good practice. He has become in the short period he has been here one of the leading young physicians of the town. Like his bride he comes from a prominent family. His father is a leading banker of Rochester, Pa.

Dr. and Mrs. Heller for the present will not take any wedding trip. Their announcements are being issued and they will be "at home" after May 1, at 621 Fallowfield a venue.

Injured in Fall.

Mrs. J. Young, aged 63 years was hurt at Belle Vernon when a fence against which she was leaning Wednesday afternoon broke and she was precipitated to the street below about six feet. Her back and side were injured and she was hurt internally but it is thought she will recover.

SUGGEST MONESSEN BILL BE PRESENTED

If Coatesville's Charter is to be Revoked, so the Easteners Assert Should be That of Westmoreland Borough

In retaliation for the bad name Coatesville has been given recently by the talk of revoking its charter as a means of punishment for the lynching of a negro in that town, it has been suggested that the people of that borough have a bill introduced in the legislature for the revocation of Monessen's charter because of the murder of Policeman Michael Entinger there over a week ago at a house used for immoral purposes.

Gov. Tener started the movement towards the revocation of Coatesville's charter, when he gave his message to the legislature at the opening of the present session. Coatesville it is asserted permitted the lynching of Zack Walker, a negro on the outskirts of the town and failed to properly attend to the punishment of the lynchers.

Since the talk of revoking the Coatesville borough charter has been going on the citizens of that community have been fighting successfully so far, to keep any action from being taken. They are on the lookout to catch up other towns in the state.

Monesesn's murder it is claimed occurred on theoutskirts of theborough. While that may be true, argue the easteners, so did the Coatesville lynching and they are held responsible for it. The matter is one that is being agitated considerably, though nothing definite has been done yet.

COMMITTEE TO VISIT GOVERNOR

Tener Promises to Assist in Dual Office Probe

HOUSE STAND BY HIM

Harrisburg, March 20—Governor Tener was sustained by the house yesterday in his attitude on the right of the special committee to investigate the executive department relative to dual office holding. Before the presentation of the report of the judiciary committee, to which the matter of the governor's subordinates refusing to testify to before the special investigating committee had been referred was presented, Governor Tener submitted a message in which he stated that he was willing to give all the information the committee desired. This aroused a bitter squabble as to whether or not the resolution for the committee to wait upon the governor before it took further action should be laid upon the table. The house finally voted in favor of this but the committee reported that it held the officials who refused to testify in contempt.

Some sensational testimony was brought out at the initial meeting of the House committee to investigate the pay roll of the senate and the house, when it was shown that two custodians of the wash room who are paid $6 a day each for their services are farming the job out for $1 a day each to a negro who has a shoe blacking establishment in the basement, who in turn farms it out to two boys at 50 cents each It was shown that this has been the custom for years but in all probability the practice will be stopped.

The house will now get down to business, it is expected as very little of the important business has yet been transacted and the people are beginning to murmur over the delay.

The seate passed finally the Sheatz constitutional amendment to increase the debt limit of counties, cities, boroughs, townships and school districts from seven to ten per cent of the assessed property valuation and permitting municipal bonds to be issued for 50 year terms instead of 30.

Bills passed by the senate were: Prohibiting the sale or gift of cigarets to minors; house bill prohibiting the killing of elk; providing for the education of blind children in the public schools; house bill authorizing liquor dealers to keep their places open pending the outcome of applications for license transfers.

The appropriations committee approved the bill appropriating $1,000,000 to aid municipalities ordered by the health commissioner of the state to construct sewage disposal plants.

SOLEMN PERIOD BEGINS

Today First of Four Noted Religious Days of the Year

SERVICES ARE HELD

Today begins one of the most solemn religious periods in the whole year. This is because it represents the day before the crucifixion of Christ. Holy, or Maunday Thursday, is followed by Good Friday, which is made the occasion of solemn ceremonies throughout the Catholic churches of the land and many of the Protestant denominations. Holy Saturday will be observed and then will come the crowning event of all, Easter Sunday, which signifies the day of the resurrection.

Because of the religious observance of the two days, the public schools are closed today and will remain closed until Monday.

Services are being held today in St. Jerome's Catholic church and in St. Mary's Episcopal church.

FACULTY DRUBBED BY HIGH SCHOOL

The Charleroi high school faculty team did not appear strong enough Wednesday night to best the regular high school team and was beaten by the score of 51 to 32. However the game which was the last one of the basketball season was fast at all times. The faculty team led at the end of the first half by the score of 22 to 20, but that lead didn't last long. The lineup:

High School—51		Faculty—32
Wagner	F	Jimeson
Stahlman	F	Lorimer
Gaut	C	Wagner
Hickey	G	Grim
E. Lowstutter	G	Haines

Field goals—Wagner 6, Stahlman 9, Gaut 8, Hickey, Lowstutter, Jimeson 3, Lorimer 2, Wagner 7, Grim 2, Haines.

FATAL ILLNESS STARTS WITH AN ATTACK OF GRIP

Charles D. Strausser, aged 50 years and for 20 years a resident of Charleroi died at 8:25 o'clock Wednesday night at his home at 801 Shady avenue after a three weeks' illness. Mr. Strausser took sick with grip. Complications grew as the result. Mr. Strausser was employed as foreman of the box shop at the Imperial Bottle factory.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Lillie Strausser, his mother Mrs. Sarah Strausser and the following sons and daughters; Bert, Carl, Harry, Clyde, Raymond, James and Misses Mabel, Lillie, Cora and Ethel; also Mrs. Martha Leisure of Belle Vernon.

Mr. Strausser was a member of Charleroi Circle No. 303, Protected Home Circle of the Odd Fellows lodge and of the Charleroi Loyal Order of the Moose. The Protected Home Circle will hold funeral services at the home on Friday night after the regular lodge meeting.

Public funeral services will be held at the late home at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. T. Hackett, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, where Mr. Strausser was a member. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

Monongahela Window Glass Workers Lay Down Tools

COMPANY MAKES OFFER

Agree to Regulate Pay Differently With an Increase in Three Departments

Two plants of the American Window Glass company, one at Belle Vernon employing between 400 and 500 men and one at Monongahela employing a similar number are closed by reason of a strike. Today at noon the company issued a notice offering workers in the blowers, cappers and ladlers departments increased pay, that if accepted will end the strike.

The Belle Vernon factory was closed down Tuesday when the lead taken by the blowers and cappers to strike was followed generally. The blowers and cappers struck for increased pay claiming they were not getting what they had been promiserd. Other departments struck more out of sympathy than anything else. The Industrial Workers of the World quickly and quietly effected an organization in Belle Vernon and sent representatives to Monongahela to get the factory men there to come out.

They succeeded in their efforts and today the Monongahela factory fires are out. However, it is not believed the strike will be long lived. The notice issued by the American Window Glass company to their four factories, Monongahela, Belle Vernon, Jennette and New Kensington is regarded as fair. It is as follows:

"Notice is hereby given by the American Window Glass company that beginning with Saturday March 15, 1913, box money will be paid to the blowers, cappers and ladlers for all over 20 boxes per machine per shift, instead of the present rate."

The blowers, cappers and ladlers have been receiving pay for all over 30 boxes.

SMALL GAIN IN THE POPULATION

There were 25 births and 16 deaths in the Charleroi district during February. Dr. Edwin McKay, registrar, gave the report to the Mail this morning. Of this number there were 22 births in Charleroi, and three in Fallowfield, there being none in Twilight. In Charleroi there were 15 deaths and in Fallowfield one death.

HOME TRADE.

It frequently happens that a candidate for county office losses out because he did not carry his home town or district. He loses it because he made no effort to see the voters—his friends and neighbors—individually and acquaint them of his canvass, talk the matter over with them and make them feel that they were important enough to be considered. He takes for granted that his home people all know that he is a candidate and are in duty bound to support him, and that it is a waste of time to seek out each one individually and solicit his support. Because of this lack of interest in his home district some of his neighbors vote against the home candidate out of resentment, while others are indifferent, or have promised the other fellow who is a candidate who sought out the individual voter, talked nice to him, gave him a cigar and wrote to him later on just before the election.

What happens to the political candidate who neglects his home town is what happens to the merchant or tradesman who pursues the same tactics. Many merchants are constantly on the outlook for outside trade who neglect to go after the trade in their home town. The result is that as much trade goes out at one end of the town as comes in at the other. The home merchant who does not advertise constantly and tell his neighbors what he carries and give details of value, quality and style, is supplanted by the outside merchant who does. The business policy that assumes that all the home people are in duty bound to patronize the home merchant without any obligation on the part of the latter except to hand out the merchandise is a suicidal one. It arouses resentment on the part of the public, fosters indifferences and does not promote loyalty to home institutions.

When the home merchants delegate to the outside advertisers the task of educating the public as to trade values, styles and qualities, the outsiders are going to profit by the knowledge they have imparted and the confidence they have inspired.

GOOD IDEA.

The Washington Observer comes forward with the proposition that before a person can be elected to the office of congress or the legislature, he must have certain qualifications to equip him for the office. He should be possessed of a board and liberal education, have a well defined knowledge of political economy, civil service, public and moral efficiency, be able to pass a rigid examination in the instricacies of state, county and municipal government and be able to interpret in a common sense way the rights and privileges guaranteed by the national and state constitutions. It is proposed to make these qualifications a condition for eligibility to a legislative office, state or national.

It is pointed out that the lawyer, the doctor, the school teacher, the druggist and those who follow many other occupations are required to have certain and special qualifications before they can deal with the public. As the legislators are the ones who impose conditions and regulations on other individuals as well as the public, it is up to the public to require legislators to be well qualified for the task. The idea is a good one and marks for efficiency.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

A reader, who is of the opinion that "life is a funny proposition after all," and that in the deal the animal called man—the male of the species—gets the hot end of the poker, submits the following:

"Man comes into this world without his consent, and he leaves it "against his will, and while he stays on this earth his life is one continuous round of conflict and misunderstanding.

"In his infancy he is an angel. In his boyhood he is a devil, and in his manhood he is everything from a lizard up. If he is a poor man, he is a poor manager and has no sense. If he is a rich man he is dishonest, but considered smart. If he is a Republican or a Democrat he is a grafter, and if he is a Socialist he is an undesirable citizen. If he goes to church he is a hypocrit, if he don't he is a sinner. If he raises a family he is a chump and if he raises a check he is a thief, and then the law raises h—— with him. If he gives to the foreign mission he only gives it for a show, and if he doesn't he is stingy and a tight wad and when first he comes into this world everybody wants to kiss him and before he leaves it everybody wants to kick him. If he dies in his youth there was a great future before him and if he lives to a ripe old age he is only living to save funeral expenses.

"So it is a funny proposition after all. All life is, is one hum drum thing after another."

A traveling man whose occupations bring him frequently in a house to house canvass in the rural districts relates how once he was traveling in West Virginia and being belated, stopped at a small log house in the mountains and asked the woman if he could get supper.

"Well, now," she said, "I'm pretty well out of provisions. I didn't bake today, and have no bread; I'm out of tea and coffee, as I haven't been to the store this week."

"Haven't you something you can give me to eat?" the man inquired.

"Well, I can give you some good canned pears, some fried eggs and some water," the woman replied.

"All right," give me that," said the traveler, and he added that the pears were all right and verified the woman's statement that they were good.

Retail Druggists Of Charleroi Receive a "Tar Heel" Remedy

A Vapor Treatment in the Form of a Salve--Relieves Colds Over Night, Croup in Fifteen Minutes--Druggists Giving Away 25 Cent Packages Free

The local druggists have received from North Carolina, the "Tar Heel" State ,a remedy for all cold troubles that is entirely different from the usual run of cough syrups and cold tablets.

It is the form of a salve that is vaporized by the heat of the body when applied to the throat and chest. These antiseptic vapors are inhaled with each breath and combined with the absorption of the preparation through the skin, give almost immediate relief in even the worst cases of croup and relieve head and chest colds over night.

But the fact of most interest to mothers about this new treatment is that it is external and can thus be used with perfect safety on the youngest member of the family.

In cases of incipient pneumonia or severe colds first apply hot wet towels to open the pores of the skin, then rub the salve in well and cover with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the covers loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. The next morning you hardly realize you had a cold as the head is clear, phlegm loosened and soreness gone from the lungs.

In advanced cases of pneumonia the use of this preparation in connection with the regular physician's treatment will greatly aid the patient's chances of recovery. Combined with the absorption of the treatment through the skin, the medicated vapors inhaled loosen the wreckage in the lungs and render the breathing less difficult. This takes part of the work from the overtaxed heart and thus lowers the fever.

These seem strong claims but the wholesale houses in Pittsburg of Shipley Massingham Co. and Gilmore Drug Co., who have investigated the results of this treatment in the south are so convinced of its merit that they have authorized the retail druggists to sell it on 30 days' trial and to refund the price to any user who is not delighted with the results.

In addition the druggists are arranging to give away a limited number of 25-cent packages free to their regular customers. Present the coupon below and if your dealer has not yet received his shipment he will reserve you a package.

Betty and Billy Lawrence—the Paint Kids —are "Regular Doctors"

"NOW, you hold the paint pail, Betty, and we'll start our work. I'm so glad the man sent up the LAWRENCE PAINT last night as I could hardly wait to begin."

"Doesn't it look nice and smooth? Really, I sometimes think it's almost good enough to eat."

"Well, Betty, it's surely true that everything we've tried it on seems to like our paints very much, and they certainly look a whole lot better."

"That's just it. We're regular doctors, Billy, and we make old, sick things young again."

"Anyway, when we get through with 'em, Betty, they all have nice, pretty and clear complexions—the kind that won't wash off."

OVER THE COUNTY

Barn-Burner at Work.

Fire, believed to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed the large frame barn on the C. P. Buchanan farm a short dstance southwest of the village at 10 o'clock Saturday night. The contents of the barn also went up in smoke as nothing was saved. Over 700 bales of hay were destroyed. The loss will be over $3,500 wit habout $1,500 insurance.

Avella Pastor Accepts Call.

Rev. B. F. Heany, pastor of the Avella Presbyterian church, announced to his congregation Sunday morning that he would accept the call extended him from the Ebensburg Presbyterian church located in the county seat of Cambria county. The Rev. Mr. Heany will deliver his farewell sermon to the Avella congregation Sunday March 30.

Many Horses in Training.

From now on until mid-summer the Washington Fair association's big training plant at Arden will be about the busiest spot in Washington county. Already nearly all the available stalls are filled or contracted for and horsemen are clamoring for accommodations for the spring training season. By the end of this week there will be more than 80 horses keeping the fine cinder path busy and ready to go on thet rack as soon as weather conditions permit.

Over 1,000 Hit Trail.

At the beginning of the week 1,016 persons have "hit the sawdust trail" at the big tabernacle meetings at Canonsburg under direction of Dr. Lyon and his company. On Sunday there were 191 new trailers, bringing the aggregate number up to the number mentioned. Over 3,000 men were in attendance at the men's meeting on Sunday when the evangelist preached on temperance.

Morganza Inmates Hit Trail.

When the Rev. G. G. Kerr of Canonsburg conducted the usual religious service in the Pennsylvania Training School last Sunday, about 50 of the boys and girls went forward and signified their intention of accepting the Christian life. This number was in addition to between 200 and 300 who took a similar stand last week, when Dr. Lyon and his party visited the Training school. Since the Lyon meetings opened more than 300 inmates at Morganza have professed Christianity.

Telephone Co. Elects Officers.

The Home Mutual Telephone company met at Deemston recently and elected the following officers for a term of one year: President, J. W. Kenny; vice president, R. H. Williams; secretary, C. A. Bennet treasurer, First National bank of Fredericktown. The next meeting of the general company will be at Deemston on Tuesday, March 25.

Old Account Book Interesting.

Anderson Hootman of Strabane has in his possession a book which belonged to John Whitmore which is more than 100 years of age. Items in this book are dated as far back as January 23,1781. The book has been in the Hootman family for many years, it having been found among a lot of old relics in the house owned by the grandfather of Anderson Hootman. Some of the early accounts are computed in pence and shillings, one of the most frequent of which is whisky, by the pint and gill.

To Organize New Grange.

A meeting of the farmers of the Vanceville region in Somerset township will be held this evening for the purpose of organizing a new grange.

Route May Be Discontinued.

The postoffice department has ordered the star mail route from Washington to Scenery Hill to be discontinued on April 1, and a number of patrons are protesting. The change was ordered on the recommendation of an inspector who learned that mail could reach Scenery Hill by train by the way of Monongahela and Marianna, but this will make mail from the county seat a day late.

Italians Apply for Charter.

A petition has been presented to the court for the incorporation of "The Italian Mutual Benefit Society" of Washington county. Its place of business is in Canonsburg. The objects of the society are to aid and give assistance to sick and disabled members, and for the elevation of the moral, intellectual and social welfare of the members.

Some actresses have only been married twice.

EXPERIENCE OF MOTHERHOOD

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The exnerience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

At The Palace.

The vaudeville bill for the last three days of the week opens at the Palace Theatre tonight with the topliners, "The Three Dreamers," heading the reportoire. This trio is composed of three clever young men who play the piano and are harmony singers and dancers. This is the act that was booked at the Palace the second week of vaudeville but was cancelled on account of the sickness of one of the trio. The company carries special scenery for their act. In addition are Kearns and Davis, high class singers and dancers and Harvell in an exceedingly clever musical act. The motion pictures tonight are "The Miser" and "A Life in a Balance."

They go hand in hand—Berryman's carpets and house cleaning. 202-t2
